Kilpatrick Townsend Elects Tobias Öd as Partner

25 June, 2020

Stockholm (June 25th) – Kilpatrick Townsend is pleased to announce the election of Tobias Öd as partner in the Stockholm office effective July 1st, 2020.

Tobias Öd joined Kilpatrick Townsend from another business law firm in 2017. Tobias possesses broad legal experience within private M&A, fund raisings, incentive programs, joint ventures, complex commercial agreements and employment law. He regularly represents startups as well as larger corporations in matters of investments, acquisitions, and complex commercial negotiations. Tobias also represents employers in labor disputes and in negotiations with unions.

"We are very pleased to announce Tobias as a partner," said Stockholm Managing Partner Mattias Wittgren.

"Tobias is a highly talented lawyer combining his legal expertise in M&A and corporate law, commercial agreements and labor law, with a great network and a tremendous commitment to our clients. His strive and engagement for developing our firm makes him an indispensable asset to our team as well as being a true role model for our younger lawyers."

"It is with great joy and humility that I take on the new role as partner," said Tobias Öd. "We have a brilliant team of highly skilled and experienced colleagues at the firm. I am looking forward to continuing the development of our firm with the addition of my legal expertise, complementing the firm's already well reputable practice within real estate transactions, dispute resolution and public procurement."
